

Young scientific programme at ESTRO 36

Monday 8 May 2017 | 08.00-18.00 HRS
Vienna, Austria

08.00-08.40 HRS

'Show me the Money': Tips and tricks on how to write successful grant proposals

Chair: Tobias Gauer (Germany)

Speaker: Philippe Lambin (The Netherlands)

08.45-10.00 HRS

Career symposium

Education and research grants

Chair: Ludwig Dubois (The Netherlands)

Co-chair: Laure Marignol (Ireland)

European Research Council (ERC) grants – how to succeed

Speaker: Mark Vooijs (The Netherlands)

ESTRO educational grants and mobility grants

Speaker: Marie-Catherine Vozenin (Switzerland)

ESTRO educational grants – if you don't try, you won't win

Speaker: Mateusz Spalek (Poland)

An ESTRO mobility grant experience: establishing intravital brain imaging in preclinical models

Speaker: Joanna Birch (UK)

An ESTRO mobility grant experience: proton irradiation of a 3D dosimeter

Speaker: Ellen Marie Høye (Denmark)

10.30-11.30 HRS

Keynote lecture

Chris Lintott, astrophysicist

Chair: TBC

Co-chair: TBC

14.45-16.15 HRS

Scientific symposium

Young ESTRO meets ESTRO School

Chair: Bernardino De Bari (France)

Co-chair: Yannick Eller (Switzerland)

Introduction and presentation of FALCON* on-line contouring system as a tool for e-learning

Speaker: Jesper Grau Eriksen (Denmark)

Literature overview and discussion of clinical cases:

- Lung cancer

Medical student: Lukas Käsmann (Germany)

Senior: Branislav Jeremic (Serbia)

- Cervical cancer

Medical student: Louisa Bolm (Germany)

Senior: Laura Motisi (Italy)

- Rectal cancer

Medical student: Imon Barua (Norway)

Senior: Karin Haustermans (Belgium)

16.45-17.00 HRS

Report back and follow up on Agora meeting

17.00-17.15 HRS

Interactive quiz

17.15-18.00 HRS

Young reception

* Fellowship in Anatomic delineation and CONtouring